1.3 If the Company do not enforce any of its rights under these Conditions or if there is a delay in enforcing them, it does not prevent the Company from taking any action to enforce its rights in the future

1.4 These Conditions are issued 26th January 2019. They are effective in accordance with the provisions of Condition 9.12 for existing Collectors and immediately for new Collectors.

1.5 Each of these Conditions is separate from all other Conditions so that if one Condition is found to be void or otherwise unenforceable it will not affect the validity of any of the other Conditions.

2 WARRANTIES, REPRESENTATIONS AND UNDERTAKINGS

2.1 Except to the extent that Condition 2.2 applies, the Collector warrants and represents to the Company that the Collector has and shall continue to have throughout the Contract Term, all necessary consents, licences and approvals in connection with its entry into and performance of its obligations under the Contract.

2.2 If the Collector proposes to operate Premises in connection with the provision of any of the Services but has not yet received specific approval to do so from a Competent Authority, it must provide details of its application to its local Animal Health Divisional Office or other Competent Authority for such approval. Pending approval, it may operate the Premises but in the event that specific approval is subsequently refused, the Premises may not be used under the Contract to provide the Services.

2.3 Throughout the Contract Term the Collector warrants and undertakes that:

- (a) it shall either:
  - (i) obtain, uphold and maintain all consents, licences and approvals required to operate any of the Premises necessary for the performance of the Services (subject to Condition 2.2); or
  - (ii) (where the Collector is not operating or proposing to operate any Premises in connection with the Services) ensure that it is able to provide all the necessary facilities, materials and any other equipment and personnel of appropriate qualifications and experience to undertake the Services, (which may be by provision of the services of an Approved Person);

on the terms communicated by the Collector to the Company and confirmed in writing by the Company to the Collector;

(b) without limitation to Condition 2.1, it shall comply with such provisions of the Community Regulations and the UK Regulations applicable to the Collector as are relevant to the provision of any element of the Services (including, without limitation, the provisions of Article 7 and Annex II of the Community Regulations and Law from time to time relating to roadworthiness of vehicles); and

(c) without limitation to Condition 2.1, it shall comply with such guidance applicable to the Services, which may be issued by a Competent Authority from time to time and including (without limitation), the Biosecurity Conditions;

(d) it shall maintain on-line data entry capability;

(e) it shall maintain such insurance cover as would normally be maintained by a reputable contractor in accordance with Good Industry Practice in the Equine collection industry including (without limitation) public liability insurance in the sum of not less than £1,000,000 (one million pounds) per claim and shall from time to time produce to the Company, on request, such reasonable evidence as the Company may require that such insurances are in effect and that the premiums are paid up to date.

2.4 The Collector shall at all times be responsible for the actions and omissions of its employees, agents, contractors and sub-contractors and any Approved Person with whom it engages at any time as if they were its own.

- 2.5 Throughout the Contract Term, the Collector warrants that it shall perform the Services at all times with all reasonable skill, care, diligence, following Good Industry Practice and in accordance with the Law as in force from time to time.
- 2.6 Without prejudice to the generality of Condition 2.1, all personnel deployed by or on behalf of the Collector in connection with the Services shall have appropriate qualifications and competence, be suitably fit and healthy to carry out the Services, be properly managed and supervised at all times and in these and any other respects be acceptable to the Company. If the Company gives the Collector notice that in the Company's reasonable opinion any person should be removed from involvement in the Services, the Collector shall take immediate steps to comply with such notice. The decision of the Company regarding the Collector's personnel shall be final and conclusive.
- 2.7 Throughout the Contract Term, the Collector shall not in any way misuse, abuse or defraud, any customer, and/or the Company in connection with the operation of the Services.
- 2.8 The Company reserves the right to make such investigations as it sees fit regarding the financial probity of any Collector before accepting the Collector's tariffs under the Services.
- 2.9 The Company reserves the right to refuse to award a Contract to any Collector where in the Company's opinion such Collector has failed to perform in accordance with Good Industry Practice and/or in accordance with the the Equine End of Life service collector standards and Biosecurity conditions
- 2.10 The Collector is responsible for notifying the Company of changes to its trading name, address or if there are any other changes relevant to the Services provided hereunder. If the Company is not advised of changes to a Collector's contact details the Company may make a charge for any work undertaken by it in tracing the Collector.
- 2.11 Online instructions from Collectors as to their bank details will be accepted by the Company. However, the accuracy of this information will remain the responsibility of the Collector. The Company will not be liable in any circumstances if funds are transmitted to details of account holders supplied by the Collector.
- 2.12 The Company will not accept any instructions made via email which do not relate to the Services or which require the Company to act at a specified time or value. It is the responsibility of the Collector to ensure confidential information is not revealed in emails.
- 2.13 The Company reserves the right to suspend a Collector who, in their opinion, brings the collection and disposal industry into disrepute whilst an official investigation by the Competent Authority takes place, whether or not directly related to the provision of Services hereunder. If the Collector is subsequently found to be guilty of any offence or wrongdoing the Company reserves the right to terminate the Contract with the Collector who will no longer be entitled nor shall they supply Services under or in connection with the Services. This Condition includes breaches of any Law and covers any disposal or collection made by the Collector irrespective of whether that collection or offence was booked through the Company.
- 3 PROVISION OF THE SERVICES
- 3.1 Upon being contacted by the Company within the Collector's Area to collect and dispose of an Equine, the Collector shall:
- (a) make direct arrangements with the Company administration for the collection of the customers Equine within 24 (twenty four) hours of the Collector being so contacted or where this is not possible, such other period as NFSCO and the Collector may jointly agree; and
- (b) record the date and time of call and the due date and time of collection of the Equine collection and the details of the required service
- 3.2 On collection of any Equine from any customer, the Collector shall provide the customer with a receipt for that collection (such receipt to be in a format prescribed by the Company), giving the date and time of collection, details of the Collector's registration number and the Equine collected. The Collector shall ensure that it signs and dates any such receipt at the time of collection and shall use its best endeavours to ensure that (subject to Condition 3.3) the receipt is countersigned by the customer at that time.
- 3.3 The customer will only countersign a receipt when the customer and the Collector have agreed that the Services have been properly performed on that occasion. If there is a dispute between the and the Collector, which cannot be resolved by them within 5 days after the provision of the Services, to which it relates, such dispute will in the first place be referred to the Company, which shall be entitled to request copies of all relevant documentation. The Company's decision on such a dispute, acting reasonably and fairly, will be final and binding on the customer, the Collector and the Company.
- 3.4 The Collector must keep records of all receipts issued and records of where all Equines collected by it was disposed of and the method of disposal for a period of six (6) years from the date of collection from the customer. The Collector shall ensure that those records shall be available for inspection by the Company under Conditions 4.3 and 3.11.
- 3.5 Unless otherwise agreed with the Company, the Collector must provide Services to any customer who resides in any part of the Area that the Collector has an agreed set of Charges with the Company, and in respect of which any such customer makes a request for the provision of such Services.
- 3.6 If Charges are tendered by a Collector for a specific Area but a Collector is unable to collect in that Area, the Company reserves the right to remove

- the relevant postcodes from the Area, or otherwise amend the Area, and/or suspend the Collector from providing the Services.
- 3.7 The attribution of an Area to a Collector shall not in any way prevent or restrict the Company from appointing another Collector or Collectors for that Area.
- 3.8 The Parties may from time to time agree to amend the Area and/or the categories of Equine in respect of which the Collector is providing the Services and any such amendment shall be recorded in writing.
- 3.9 The Collector shall be at liberty, by agreement with a customer, to charge Special Fees. The terms of the provision of any services attracting Special Fees shall be subject to agreement between the relevant customer and the Collector. Any Special Fees must be identified as such on any receipt issued under Condition 3.2 and in the appropriate invoice issued by the Collector under Condition 4.2.
- 3.10 Collectors are prohibited from deliberately amending collection dates for the purpose of financial gain, e.g. bringing forward a collection date to ensure it falls within the 60-day limit stated in Condition 4.3.
- 3.11 The Company or its authorised agents, reserve the right to request Collector copies of collection pads. If they cannot be produced by the Collector the Company may refuse payment or demand recovery of payments already made. The Company also has the right to audit any collections from customers and to request copies of relevant receipt pads to be made available for this purpose.
- 3.12 The Collector is responsible for arranging its own access to the internet and is solely responsible for any telephone costs and/or charges made by any internet service provider in connection with the provision of the Services and compliance with these Conditions. The Company do not guarantee speed, resolution or access to the services provided via the internet.
- 3.13 The Company will collect payments on behalf of the Collectors from customers and pay the Collector's undisputed invoices in due course.
- 3.14 Collections due for payment are subject to cut-off times, details will be communicated to the Collector via email.
- 4 CHARGES
- 4.1 The Charges payable to the Collector shall be as submitted by the Collector and accepted by the Company from time to time and shall, subject to the provisions below, be fixed for the Contract Term. Charges are exclusive of VAT which shall (where applicable) be charged in addition. The Collector will be given the option to review and, if necessary, alter its Charges at intervals notified to it by the Company from time to time during the Contract Term.
- 4.2 Unless otherwise agreed between the Parties, the Collector shall input and submit to the Company, on the online electronic self-billing system, details of the Services performed by or on behalf of the Collector during the previous Month and any Special Fees, where relevant. The Collector shall provide full details of the Services it has provided during that Month, including the details of customer as well as collection points nominated by customers from time to time served by the Collector and those categories and quantities of Equines collected by or on behalf of the Collector during that Month. The Company's system will automatically produce an invoice in arrears and monthly billing statement setting out the Charges due and owing to the Collector in respect of the Services performed during the previous month.
- 4.3 All collections must be entered onto the Company's online invoicing/billing system by the Collector no later than 60 days after the collection is made. Failing to respond within the prescribed timescale may lead to non-payment for the collections associated with the statement concerned.
- 4.4 If so requested by the Company, the Collector shall submit with each invoice all such records and information as the Company may reasonably require including, but not limited to, a full breakdown of any expenses incurred, invoices paid and receipts countersigned under Condition 3.2.
- 4.5 In consideration of the Collector's satisfactory provision of the Services and subject to this Condition 4, the Company shall, within 30 business days after the Collector's invoice for the Services has been received by the Company, pay to the Collector all sums due under that invoice which are not in dispute.
- 4.6 If the Collector has incurred any pre-agreed Special Fees under Condition 3.9, the Company will also pay those pre-agreed Special Fees, provided that they are not disputed and have been separately identified on the receipt and invoice issued by the Collector, as set out in Condition 3.9. The Company reserves the right to refuse to pay Special Fees where, in its sole discretion, it believes it is not appropriate to do so and in such circumstances will inform the Collector and the customer accordingly. In those circumstances, the Collector is under an obligation to obtain payment of those Special Fees directly from the customer concerned.
- 4.7 The Company shall in no way be liable in connection with these Conditions or the service to the Collector for any sum or sums other than the Charges properly due and payable and (subject to Condition 4.6) any Special Fees. A dispute as to payment may originate from a customer or from the Company but any Charges or Special Fees, which are the subject of a dispute, shall not be paid until such dispute is resolved.
- 4.8 Any dispute as to Charges (other than Charges in respect of which a customer has properly refused to countersign a receipt and/or where the Company has made a decision under Condition 3.3), between the Company and the Collector, which cannot be resolved shall be referred to dispute resolution under Condition 8. In the event that any Charge is disputed, the Collector shall be permitted to submit an amended invoice omitting the disputed sum from the invoiced amount (together with a credit note if applicable) in order to - secure payment of any sum under Condition 4.5.

- 4.9 The Collector is responsible for checking the amount of any payment received is correct as soon as possible after receipt. If the Collector believes, acting reasonably, that any details are incorrect, they should contact the Company on 01335 320024 immediately.
- 5. ADMINISTRATION LEVY
- 5.1 To cover the Company's administration and financial costs, the Collector agrees to and shall pay to the Company a monthly percentage levy, notified as applicable from time to time by the Company to the Collector, for each collection carried out. This levy is exclusive of VAT, which shall (where applicable) be charged in addition.
- 5.2 Any payment due under this Condition 5 from the Collector to the Company the Collector hereby authorises the Company to deduct from all monies due and owing to the Collector as Charges in respect of the Services performed by or on behalf of the Collector during the Monthly invoicing periods including, without limitation, any Special Fees payable, and will be based on the percentage rate in force at that time as notified by the Company to the Collector.
- 5.3 The Company may review and vary the percentage rate by notice to the Collector to reflect any variation in costs incurred by the Company in the provision of the Services at anytime.
- 5.4 A promotional levy of £10 plus VAT will be charged to the customer by the Company. The Company reserves the right to alter this fee as they see fit from time to time.
- 6 ONLINE SECURITY
- 6.1 The Company will use all reasonable endeavours to monitor and maintain the security of the online services which it makes available to the Collector but due to the nature of the internet the Company cannot guarantee absolute security at all times.
- 6.2 The Collector must exit the relevant web pages on which it may access services provided by the Company when leaving its computer terminal unattended and must not allow any unauthorised personnel to access the relevant web pages or generally communicate billing data to the Company on its behalf.
- 6.3 The Collector user name and password are used to gain access to the online services which the Company makes available in connection with the provision of the Services and the associated administration of the Company. These security details must NOT be kept together. The Collector's security details must be kept in a safe place at all times. The Collector must NEVER write down, disclose or reveal the security details to anyone (save for those officers and employees strictly needing to know the same) or keep them where they may be discovered.
- 6.4 If a Collector believes that someone knows or has found or discovered their security details the Company must be notified immediately on 01335 320024. The liability of the Collector in respect of unauthorised access by a third party using the Collector's user name and password will cease as soon as notification is received by the Company (or at 8.30am on the next business day if notification is received after 5pm on a day which is not a business day), unless the unauthorised use of user name and the password is due to the fraud or negligence of the Collector in which case the Collector may be liable for all losses subsequently incurred by the Company and/or any of its customers.
- 6.5 The Collector is responsible for the security of any data which is downloaded from the online services which the Company makes available to the Collector onto any hardware or software being used by the Collector.
- 6.6 The Company reserves the right to suspend its online services if:
  - (a) incorrect security details are used to try to access the online services which the Company makes available to the Collector;
  - (b) the Company suspect an unauthorised person is attempting to access the online services which the
- Company makes available to the Collector; and/or
- (c) in the Company's discretion, there is reasonable justification for doing so.
- 6.7 The Company will endeavour to act on instructions promptly once received from a Collector, however, the Company may refuse to act upon any instructions received if:
  - (a) the Company have reasonable grounds for believing that the Collector did not send the instructions; and/or
  - (b) the instructions are not clear.
- 6.8 From time to time the online services which the Company makes available to the Collector may be closed down for repair, maintenance work or upgrade or where it is necessary to protect the interests of the Collector, the Company or any customer. In such circumstances, the Company will, where reasonably practicable, give as much notice as possible via email and also on the website www.equine-endoflife.co.uk
- 6.9 The Company reserves the right to reject the security code the Collector has chosen if the Company believe it is inappropriate for the online services which the Company makes available to the Collector.
- 7 LIABILITY
- 7.1 The Company will not be liable for any liability, loss or damage which the Collector may incur as a result of providing any Services (including, without limitation, the online services which the Company makes available to the Collector) except where such loss or damage was caused by gross negligence, wilful default or fraud by the Company or its employees.
- 7.2 The Collector shall be liable for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of any breach of these Conditions by the Collector or any fraud or negligence (including, without limitation, the online services which the Company makes available to the Collector) by the Collector or any of its employees, agents or sub-contractors. In the case of alleged fraud on the Collector's account, the Collector will be required to cooperate with the police or Trading Standards in any investigation, as the case may be.

7.3 Due to the nature of the internet and electronic communication there is a risk of errors or interruption. The Company is not liable:

- (a) in the event of any error or interruption in communication; or
- (b) for any losses or delays in the transmission of instructions to the Company caused by any internet service provider or by software failure; or
- (c) for any breaches of security of the service arising beyond the Company's reasonable control; or
- (d) for any direct, indirect or consequential loss the Collector may suffer as a result of using the internet to access the online services which the Company makes available to the Collector.

7.4 The Company shall not be liable for any damages, losses, claims or liabilities a Collector may suffer or incur as a result of:

- (a) any error or inaccuracy in the instructions the Collector gives to the Company;
- (b) any instructions given to the Company by the Collector being incomplete;
- (c) the Collector allowing someone else to use or obtain (with or without its permission), the Collector's security details.

8 UNSATISFACTORY PERFORMANCE

8.1 Where in the reasonable opinion of the Company the Collector has failed to perform the whole or any part of the Services in accordance with Good Industry Practice and/or this Contract, the Company may give the Collector a notice specifying:

- (a) the way in which its performance falls short of the requirements of this Contract or is otherwise unsatisfactory; and
- (b) any rectification period on the terms referred to in Condition 8.2.

8.2 Where the Collector has been notified of a performance failure in accordance with Condition 8.1, the Company may request from the Collector that, at the Collector's own cost and expense and as specified by the Company, the Collector re-schedules and performs the affected Services to the Company's satisfaction within such period as may be specified by the Company in the notice, including, where necessary, the correction or re-execution of any such Services already carried out and/or withhold or reduce payments to the Collector, in such amount as the Company, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate in each particular case.

8.3 In exercising any discretion under this Condition 8, the Company shall at all times act reasonably in all the circumstances.

9 INVESTIGATION, AUDIT, SUSPENSION, TERMINATION (EXPULSION) AND LIABILITY

9.1 The Company and/or a Competent Authority (or a representative or nominee of either or both such persons) shall be entitled to investigate the Collector's performance of the Services in order to ensure that the Collector is at all times compliant with these Conditions. The Collector shall as a condition of its ongoing participation in providing the Services provide the Company (or any representative or nominee of the Company) whenever requested with ready access to such information, records and documentation (including that stored in electro-magnetic, digital or electronic format), personnel and premises of the Collector and/or any agent, contractor, Approved Person or sub-contractor engaged in connection with the provision of the Services as is reasonably necessary to assist with any investigation conducted by the Company and/or any Competent Authority in connection with this Condition 9.1.

9.2 The Collector accepts that for the purposes of:

- (a) the examination and certification of the Company's accounts in connection with the Services; or
- (b) any examination pursuant to the National Audit Act 1983 (or to equivalent legislation applying to Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland) of the economy, efficiency and effectiveness with which the relevant Competent Authorities have used their resources;

the Auditor may examine such documents as he may reasonably require which are owned, held or otherwise within the control of the Collector and may require the Collector to produce such oral or written explanations, as the Auditor considers necessary. The carrying out of an examination under Section 6(3) (d) of the National Audit Act 1983 or any re-enactment thereof in relation to the Collector is not a function exercisable under the Contract.

9.3 Other than in exceptional circumstances, the Company shall provide the Collector with reasonable advance notice of the Company seeking to exercise its entitlement provided in Condition 9.1 and shall in carrying out any investigation in connection with that provision use reasonable endeavours to avoid any unnecessary disruption to any affected business or businesses of the Collector.

9.4 Without prejudice to any other power of termination provided in these Conditions, the Company may terminate the Collector's ability to provide Services with or without notice (and thereby expel the Collector from providing the Services and, if deemed appropriate, from NFSCO services) at any time forthwith for any of the following reasons:

- (a) a material breach by the Collector of any of the Conditions;
- (b) any breach by the Collector of any warranty and undertaking provided in Condition 2.3;
- (c) any failure by the Collector to comply with a notice given following unsatisfactory performance of the Collector under Condition 8.1;
- (d) any refusal to grant access to the Company or a representative or nominee or the Auditor for the purposes of investigation or audit under Conditions 9.1 or 9.2;

- (e) the Collector ceases, or proposes to cease to carry on its business;
- (f) an Insolvency Event occurs in relation to the Collector;
- (g) a change of control (as defined in Condition 17.2) occurs in relation to the Collector;
- (h) the Collector is guilty of abusive behaviour towards the Company's administration staff or towards any customer

9.5 Furthermore, without prejudice to its rights at Law from time to time, the Company may either terminate the Services with or without notice or suspend the Collector from providing the Services and, if deemed appropriate, from NFSCO services forthwith for any of the following reasons:

- (a) any act, omission and/or default committed or attempted by or on behalf of the Collector in order to misuse, abuse or defraud the the Company and/or any customer in connection with the provision of any Services; and/or
- (b) any act, omission and/or default committed or attempted by or on behalf of the Collector which causes or is likely to cause a material adverse effect at any time on the marketability of the Company to prospective customers and/or the maintenance of the Services.
- (c) the Collector taking instructions directly from a customer of the Company without express written consent from the Company any fees or charges paid directly to the Collector by the said customer shall be for the benefit of and shall be paid to the Company.

9.6 The Company shall notify all customers served by the Collector in its Area of any exercise by the Company of its power provided in this Condition 9 to suspend or expel the Collector from providing the Services. In the event that the Company:

- (a) elects to suspend the Collector, the Company shall not be liable to the Collector and/or any of its servants, officers, agents, employees, contractors, Approved Persons and sub-contractors for any Charges arising from any Services performed during the period of that suspension, which shall cease only when the Company elects to reinstate the Collector and then solely in accordance with these Conditions; or
- (b) elects to terminate the Services and expel the Collector, the Company shall not be liable to the Collector and/or any of its servants, officers, agents, employees, contractors, Approved Persons and sub-contractors for any Charges in connection with any Services performed on and after the Termination Date.

9.7 Any decision to reinstate the Collector after a suspension or expulsion hereunder shall be at the sole discretion of the Company.

9.8 Without prejudice to Condition 9.6, in the event that the Company exercises any of its powers referred to in this Condition 9 or any other power of termination, expulsion or suspension under the Contract, then, subject to Condition 9.9 the Company shall not be liable to the Collector for any losses (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any loss of revenue), costs, expenses, claims, damages and/or liabilities, of any kind, which the Collector suffers or might suffer arising out of or in connection with such expulsion or termination.

9.9 Nothing in this Contract shall exclude or restrict the Company's liability to the Collector under or in connection with this Contract for fraud or for death and/or personal injury arising from the Company's negligence.

9.10 Subject to Condition 9.9, the Company shall in no way be liable to the Collector and/or any of its servants, officers, agents, employees, contractors, Approved Persons and sub-contractors under or in connection with this Contract whether for breach of contract, under indemnity, in tort (including breach of statutory duty) or otherwise (whether or not involving a negligent act or omission) for any:

- (a) any direct losses to the Collector in excess of the administration levy payable under condition 5 over any twelve (12) consecutive Months; and / or
- (b) any loss of profit nor for any indirect or consequential losses including, without limitation, any loss of profit, loss of goodwill, loss of contract or loss of expectation.

9.11 The Collector may terminate its appointment to provide Services and this Contract at any time by notifying the Company in writing at, NFSCO CIC Sallyfield Lane, Stanton, Ashbourne, Derbyshire DE6 2DA. The notification will only be effective once it is received by the Company and all outstanding sums are paid by the Collector to the Company. The Collector will then cease to be eligible to provide Services.

9.12 The Company reserves the right to vary these Conditions at any time. Any variation will only take place after the Company has given the Collector at least 30 days prior written notice of any changes before they take effect. The Company will provide 30 days notice of the changes to the Collector by email and/or post. Notification shall be deemed to take place on the first day notification is emailed to the Collector.

9.13 Where the Company becomes aware of any information, which may or is likely to assist any Competent Authority with regard to the Collector's compliance with any Law from time to time, the Company may disclose that information to that Competent Authority without obtaining the Collector's consent.

10 BREAK

10.1 The Company shall in addition to any other provision of this Contract be permitted to terminate the Collector's appointment to provide Services at any time by giving to the Collector written notice at which time the Collector's appointment shall terminate without prejudice to the rights of the Parties accrued prior to the date of termination.

11 DISPUTES

11.1 Subject to Condition 11.2, the Parties shall use reasonable endeavours to discuss and resolve any disputes arising out of or in connection with these Conditions with reference to any receipts and/or other relevant document issued by the Collector and/or any customers in connection with the Services. The Collector shall make every effort to resolve any dispute directly with the Company or with the relevant customer as soon as reasonably practicable after such dispute has arisen. If the Parties cannot resolve the dispute within 28 (twenty eight) days of the dispute arising:

- (a) any of the Parties to the dispute may propose to the others in writing that structured negotiations be entered into with the assistance of a mediator (the "Mediator") before resorting to litigation;
- (b) within 14 (fourteen) days from the date of the proposal to appoint a Mediator any of the Parties to the dispute may apply to the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution ("CEDR") in London to appoint the Mediator;
- (c) the exchange of any relevant information and the structure to be adopted for the negotiation to be held in London shall be in accordance with the CEDR model mediation procedure;
- (d) if the Parties to the dispute accept the Mediator's recommendations or otherwise reach agreement on the resolution of the dispute, that agreement shall be reduced to writing and, once it is signed by their duly authorised representatives, shall be final and binding on the Parties;
- (e) if the Parties fail to reach agreement in the structured negotiations within 30 (thirty) days of the Mediator being appointed, any failure shall be without prejudice to the right of any Party subsequently to refer any dispute or difference to litigation, but the Parties agree that, before resorting to litigation, structured negotiations in accordance with this Condition shall have taken place; and

- (f) other than as agreed in accordance with Condition 12.1(e) nothing contained in this Condition shall restrict either Party's freedom to commence legal proceedings to preserve any legal right or remedy or protect any proprietary or trade secret right.

11.2 Condition 11.1 shall not apply to those matters referred to in Conditions 2.6, 3.3, 4.9, 9.7, 11.3 and 12 in respect of which the decision of the Company is final and conclusive or at the sole discretion of the Company.

11.3 If a Collector is dissatisfied with the service they have received from the Company they should contact the Company on 01335 320024 to discuss its concerns as soon as reasonably practicable.

11.4 The Company will always try to resolve any complaint immediately. However, if that is not possible the Company will acknowledge a complaint within 5 (five) business days of notification of the same. If a Collector's complaint is not resolved to the reasonable satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector has the right to refer the matter to the Board of the Company, full details of which are available from the Company on 01335 320024. The decision of the Board of the Company will be binding.

12 DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

12.1 Under the Government's Code of Practice on Access to Government Information (the "Code") and the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA"), the Company reserves the right to disclose any information about these Conditions or the operation of the Services when requested to do so, unless otherwise agreed in writing with the Collector. The Collector shall co-operate with the Company to ensure that it is able to meet its obligations provided in the Code and FOIA and acknowledges that the Company may be forced to disclose such information.

12.2 Unless agreed in writing with the Company, the Collector shall keep secret and not disclose these Conditions or any information of a confidential nature obtained by it in connection with the Company, the service or acquired during the course of the provision of Services to any customer, unless that information:

- (a) is in or enters the public domain otherwise than by a breach of an obligation of confidentiality;
- (b) is or becomes known from other sources without breach of any restriction on disclosure;
- (c) is strictly required for any proceedings arising under this Contract, and/or
- (d) is required to be disclosed by the Law from time to time or for the purpose of any judicial proceedings.

12.3 The decision of the Company regarding any dispute arising from this Condition 12 shall be final and conclusive.

13 NO AGENCY, EMPLOYMENT, JOINT VENTURE OR PARTNERSHIP

13.1 The Parties are not, nor shall they be deemed to be, at any time carrying on business in common in connection with these Conditions with a view of profit and nothing in these Conditions shall be deemed to create or constitute a partnership, a joint venture or agreement of employment between the Parties nor constitute either Party the agent of the other.

13.2 Neither Party shall act or describe itself as the agent, employee or partner of the other, nor shall it make or represent that it has authority to make any commitments on the other's behalf, including, but not limited to, the making of any representation or warranty, pledging the others credit and the exercise of any right or power.

14 ENTIRE AGREEMENT

14.1 This Contract sets out the entire agreement between the Parties in connection with the subject matter of this Contract and supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, arrangements or understandings between them in connection therewith.

14.2 The Parties acknowledge that they have not entered into this Contract in reliance upon any warranty, representation, covenant, undertaking, agreement term or condition which is not set out or deemed to be set out in this Contract.

14.3 Without prejudice to Conditions 14.1 and 14.2, the Parties irrevocably and unconditionally waive any right they may have to claim damages and/or to rescind this Contract for any misrepresentation whether innocent or negligent, whether in tort, under the Misrepresentation Act 1967 or otherwise or for any breach of any warranty not contained in this Contract, unless such misrepresentation or warranty was made or given fraudulently.

15 NOTICES

15.1 Each notice or other communication to be given under this Contract shall be given in writing in English and, unless otherwise provided, shall be made by hand or letter. For the avoidance of doubt, notice shall not be validly served by e-mail (unless expressly provided for within these Conditions).

15.2 Any notice or other communication to be given by one Party to another under this Contract shall, unless one Party has by no less than 5 (five) business days notice to the other Party specified another address be given to that other Party's address specified in writing at the outset of the Collector's appointment, in the Award Letter.

15.3 (a) Any notice or other communication given by any Party shall be deemed to have been received:

(i) in the case of a notice given by hand, at the time of day of actual delivery (if between the hours of 8.30 am and 5:00 pm on a business day); and

(ii) if posted, by 10 a.m. on the second business day following the day on which it was despatched by first class mail postage prepaid, provided that a notice given in accordance with the above but received on a day which is not a business day or after normal business hours in the place of receipt shall be deemed to have been received on the next business day.

(b) Any notice or other communication given to the named Party shall be deemed to have been given only on actual receipt.

16 DATA PROTECTION & GDPR

16.1 Without prejudice to the Collector's obligations under Condition 2.1, the Collector shall at all times observe its obligations under the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018) & General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR 2018) and will not transfer personal data outside the European Union without the Company's prior written consent.

16.2 The Collector hereby consents to the Company's processing of any personal data relating to the Collector in connection with this Contract, and the Services.

16.3 The Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018) & General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR 2018) a Collector will be entitled to receive details of the information that the Company holds about them, this is called a Subject Access Request (SAR). If the Collector wishes to request access to such information, they must write to The Equine End of Life Service C/o NFSCO CIC, Sallyfield Lane, Stanton, Ashbourne, Derbyshire DE6 2DA or email collector@nfsco.co.uk stating what Equine End of Life services or transactions they require details for and the period of time concerned. The Company has 1 month to respond to any Subject Access Requests with a possibility to extend this period for particularly complex requests.

16.4 Telephone calls and electronic messages to the Company may be recorded for your security and the purpose of staff training, to ensure the Company carries out the Collector's instructions correctly and to maintain and improve the Company's service standards. The information we hold and use may include recordings of your voice.

17 ASSIGNMENT AND NOVATION

17.1 The Collector may not assign, charge or make a trust of any of its rights or the benefit of all or part of this Contract or transfer, assign, delegate or sub-contract any of its duties or obligations as a registered Collector without the prior written consent of the Company.

17.2 If the Collector is a body corporate and proposes to be or is the subject of a change of control then it shall provide notice in writing to the Company together with such other information as the Company may reasonably request. For the purposes of this Condition 17.2 it will be a change of control if the Collector becomes controlled (as defined by section 840 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988) by any person(s) who did not control it on the date when the Award Letter was first issued to the Collector. Following a change of control, the Company may elect to terminate the Collector's ability to provide Services in accordance with Condition 9.4.

17.3 The Collector shall ensure any subcontractor engaged in connection with this Contract and the Services complies with the terms of this Contract insofar as they are applicable and the Collector shall provide to the Company, at the Company's request, copies of any subcontract, under the terms of which services are provided in connection with the Services.

17.4 The Company may at any time assign, charge, transfer or deal with any other manner with this Contract or any of its rights under it or transfer, delegate or sub-contract any of its duties or obligations under it.

18 CONTRACTS (RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES) ACT 1999

18.1 For the purpose of section 1(2) of the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 ("1999 Act") the Parties acknowledge that they do not intend any term of this Contract to be enforced by any third party except that those rights provided in Condition 9.1 may be enforced by a Competent Authority in accordance with the 1999 Act and the Parties agree that:

- (a) they may amend or vary any or all of the terms of this Contract or terminate this Contract without the consent of either that Competent Authority or that future service provider; and
- (b) any third party right which exists or is available independently of the 1999 Act is preserved.

19 FURTHER ACTION

19.1 Except to the extent specified in this Contract, each Party agrees at its own cost and expense to do or procure to be done all such further acts and execute or procure the execution of all such documents as may from time to time be reasonably required to give effect to the spirit and intention of this Contract.

20 ENGLISH LAW

20.1 These Conditions will be governed by and will be construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the Courts of England and Wales will have exclusive jurisdiction.
